John Parks.

John Parks of Caruthersville is a candidate for circuit clerk of Pemiscot county, subject to the will of the democratic voters at the primary election, August 4.

Mr. Parks is a native Pemiscotian, is well known throughout the county, having been connected with the Bank of Caruthersville for several years. In fact, he needs no introduction to the people.

If elected he promises to give the office his undivided attention, and being of a cautious, congenial nature, the business of the people will be a pleasure at his office.

He asks your careful consideration.

S. F. Green, candidate for presiding judge of Dunklin county, was in town Wednesday. He is a debater, working under the direction of the State Democratic Committee, and had been down to Cooter to meet a socialist who was to speak there, but the socialist eluded him. He is well posted and a fine talker.

Eastman Kodaks and supplies, at Lefler's.

Trustee's Sale.

Whereas, W. B. Meatte and E. M. Meatte, his wife, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 7th day of March, 1913, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in and for Pemiscot county, Missouri, in book 50, page 129, conveyed to the undersigned trustee the following described real estate, situated in Pemiscot County, State of Missouri, to-wit:

All of lots number two (2) and three (3) in block number thirteen (13) in the city of Hayti, Missouri.

Which said conveyance was in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note, therein particularly described, and, whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note and the interest thereon.

Now, therefore, I, J. L. Dorris, trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said note, and in accordance with the provisions and stipulations of said deed of trust, and by virtue of the authority vested in me, will on Saturday, April 18, 1914, at the postoffice door, in the City of Hayti, Pemiscot County, Missouri, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, offer for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, all of the above described real estate to pay said note with cost of executing this trust.

J. L. DORRIS,
Trustee.

SIXTEEN YEARS AGO.

(March 24, 1898.)

Sixteen years ago, two days ago, we, with our brother, printed out the first issue of the Pemiscot Argus in this city. We came here from Covington in this county, where we had been farming on the Parker Coleman place, for that purpose—to assist in giving Hayti a newspaper. We still have the files of the Argus, and to renew historical events, and to show the wonderful progress that has taken place since then, we shall reproduce from the columns of that paper from week to week the doings of those days. Sixteen years ago! Not long, as we count time, but in the life of individuals it is a wide gap.

Look back over your life and see where and what you were sixteen years ago. Take sixteen years from your life, or, in other words, look sixteen years hence, what will you be or where will you be? We can see the past, but human eyes cannot penetrate the future. When sixteen years shall have passed again, with their gladness and sorrows, many of us will be beyond the border, and many who are now counted children will be filling our places in life. Sixteen years ago B. F. Allen's sons were children. Now they are men and we are grey. We have labored many years to help make the town in which for them to live, and now they want to put us out. And if time should turn back sixteen years, what an opening of graves there would be? and while many hideous skeletons might arise from their beds of grave dust and stalk forth, there would be many friends whose glad hand would greet us and whose fond embrace would give us new courage to fight the battles of life. But we, the living, what changes have we witnessed in this long stretch of departed years? What have we lost and what have we gained; what have we done for an honest cause and for our fellowman? The extracts from these old papers of sixteen years ago will throw upon memory's screen the ever-changing pictures of time, and best, you can preserve them, if you care to keep a file of this paper:

There were five general stores, and all advertised in the first issue. J. F. Davault, who established "Famous" took a page; Stephens & Riley, half page; S. P. Williams, M. S. Mears and Trawick

Several members of the Odd Fellows lodge of this city went to Deering Saturday night to organize a new lodge. They were royally entertained. The wives and daughters of the new members of the new lodge gave a banquet, and some great eating stunts were pulled off. The following were among the attendants: T. Y. Douglas and L. B. Irvin of Kennett; P. S. Ravenstein, H. Dortch, J. M. Argo, D. D. Harbert, Morgan Warth, John Fields, Harry Schilling, W. H. Johnson, W. B. Reasoner of Hayti; as well as several from Wardell.

Prescriptions and family recipes do very little good if not properly filled. We fill them right or we don't them at all. Lefler's.

It is difficult for us to walk the streets without being continually asked by the people about the paper, about their subscription, and the new names are continually piling up. This shows that the people are with the Herald, and they are not with the criminal bunch now trying to kill it so that it cannot continue its battle against them.

& Coleman, small spaces.

C. Downing advertised the only exclusive grocery.

Dr. J. G. Crider advertised the only drug store.

The Farmers & Merchant's was the only bank, and was advertised by W. E. Talley, cashier.

G. W. Dorris and Dan Nunn advertised the only two saloons.

W. B. Meatte advertised the only butcher shop.

There were two livery stables advertised by A. D. Popham and W. L. Stallings.

Amos Huffman and J. T. Bissett advertised, the only two blacksmith shops.

T. E. Massengill advertised the only barbershop.

D. W. Marshall & Willard Barnard advertised the only contractor business.

Frank Gwin advertised as Notary Public and Real Estate Agent.

Akers & Brothers advertised as contractors, also.

J. G. Crider had a card in the paper, and was the only physician and surgeon in Hayti.

B. F. Allen advertised the City Hotel.

Every business man in Hayti advertised in the first issue of the Argus and their names are as above.

Dr. Hayes said he would like to take his six-shooter and go to Cuba and teach the Spaniards a lesson.

J. M. Ballard announced for prosecuting attorney.

J. H. McFarland announced for collector.

J. N. Delashmatt announced for probate judge.

J. W. McFarland announced for sheriff for his first term.

J. M. Clinton was principal of the public school.

Rev. Beeson preached at the Baptist church Sunday night.

Henry Edwards was teaching Luther Lambdin the postoffice business.

R. F. Michie announced for circuit court clerk.

J. F. Gordon announced for circuit court clerk.

Robert Michie of Gayoso drove two young calves over to Hayti to keep them out of the high water.

S. T. Cross of Covington sent $5.00 to pay for five subscriptions.

Miss Stella Oates, youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Oates, died of pneumonia Tuesday.

Clyde Dillman seems not the least bit discouraged since losing his beautiful little home by fire last Wednesday night, and says that he is now going to erect one of the nicest little bungalows in town. We like to see this courage. The man who gives up and sits down will never get very far in life. It takes will and courage. The man who will stand up and look adversity in the face and stay in the battle is the man that will win, but the man who will tuck his tail and run like a rain-bow faced monkey at every noise will be kept pretty busy running all the days of his life. In fact, when the world finds out that a man is a coward, he will be given little time to stand still. It takes courage and stickability to win in the battles of life.

We have a reliable watchmaker at all times and are prepared to do all kinds of watch, clock and jewelry repairing. Local time inspector for the Frisco railroad. Lefler's.

Miss Linnie DeLisle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Colum" DeLisle, died at her home in Portageville Monday.

A 500 watt electric light was placed on the flag pole of the city hall Monday. The current will be furnished free by the light company, and electricians A. B. Cortright and C. C. Ashley did the wiring, and the light was placed in position by Wofford Gordon and Moreau Gaskins. The light was donated to the city, C. J. McElheny donating $2.00 of the $6.00 cost of lamp, and also the socket, $1.25.

You can all wear Tango Slippers this year. Get the buckles and ribbon at Buckley's and put them on any slipper.

We are late this week, and had it not been for the services of G. C. Akers, the gasoline engine doctor, we might have been a week later. In repairing a broken part on our engine some cog wheels were moved, and having no adjustment marks, it took a man of experience to adjust them. If your engine balks, just call Akers.

40 acre land, all cleared, good state of cultivation, two miles northwest of Concord. Two good houses and barns. Good bargain. W. F. Cook, box 45, Hayti.

W. W. Laws of Linda visited his sister, Mrs. W. P. Meatte, in this city, Friday and Saturday.

We have one of the cleanest and most complete prescription department to be found anywhere. A registered and experienced man always in charge at Lefler's.

Piling For Sale.

600 sticks piling, 30 to 60 feet long, delivered on Frisco or Cotton Belt. E. F. Cowee, Hollywood, Mo. 20tf

The Frisco Local Agents' Association of this division held their regular meeting at Kennett Monday, which was well attended, and much important business was transacted. The following members stopped over in this city that night and were entertained by Agent O. N. Watts: W. S. Briscoe, Blytheville, Ark.; E. R. Smith, Osceola, Ark.; W. H. Pogginair of Joiner, Ark., and J. G. Sarius of Chaffee, Mo. They were a jolly bunch of Frisco hustlers. The next meeting will be at Hayti, in June, and of course our city will show them a good time.

10 tons of select alfalfa hay for sale. See Chas. Morgan, at Hayti Storage.

A. S. Warth of Gideon was here this week and renewed his subscription.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends, one and all, who worked so heroically last Wednesday night to save our property that was then being destroyed by fire. The people of Hayti are always good in occasions like this, and we want them to know that their efforts are appreciated. We also wish to extend our thanks to those who kindly assisted us since the fire, and assure them that time can never efface from our hearts and from our memory the good feeling we entertain for all.

MR. and MRS. CLYDE DILLMAN.
FRED LARSON.

Mrs. Monzeila Ballard of Chaffee, who paid her son, Jas., a brief visit in this city, returned home Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Jas. Myers and infant.
